

PROGRAM LISTING NUMBER SEVENTY

SEPT. 8 TO SEPT. 21, 1965

KRAB is supported solely by subscribers who, through their annual contributions of twelve or more dollars, make it possible for the station to continue its broadcasting. Student rates are a trifle more economical, being six dollars for nine months. The program schedules are not for sale, but they are sent regularly to those who subscribe.

+

THE Internal Revenue Service, as many of you know, advised us on June 25 of our new status, namely that of a non-profit, tax-exempt, educational organization. This means that your subscription falls in the deductible category in tax calculations. Make whatever use you can of this information.

MORNING PROGRAMS. Repeats (R) and music are heard Monday - Friday, from 7 AM to 1 PM.

+

NOTHING CAN DAUNT AS MUCH AS THE SPECTRE OF FOUNDATION MILLIONS---II, OR WHERE WOULD WE HOLD IT ALL?

Last week we were tripping over our own toes and nose in an attempt to get on the air and a young juvenile delinquent came in the eternal open door of life and said, (To page 10)

Well, that's all we have of this guide.

If you have this guide, or others that you would be willing to scan, or have us scan, please let us know.